FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 2011

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION,
Washington, DC.

The committee met, pursuant to call, at 10:40 a.m., in room 1310, Longworth House Office Building, Hon. Daniel E. Lungren (chairman of the committee) presiding.

Present: Representatives Lungren, Harper, Gingrey, Rokita, Nugent, Brady, and Gonzalez.

Staff Present: Phil Kiko, Staff Director and General Counsel; Peter Schalestock, Deputy General Counsel; Kimani Little, Parliamentarian; Joe Wallace, Legislative Clerk; Yael Barash, Assistant Legislative Clerk; Salley Wood, Communications Director; Linda Ulrich, Director of Oversight; Dominic Storelli, Oversight Staff; Bob Sensenbrenner, Elections Counsel; Karin Moore, Elections Counsel; George Hadjiski, Director of Member Services; Richard Cappetto, Professional Staff; Jamie Fleet, Minority Staff Director; Matt Pinkus, Minority Senior Policy Analyst; Matt Defreitas, Minority Professional Staff; and Greg Abbott, Minority Professional Staff.

The CHAIRMAN. I now call to order the Committee on House Administration for today's committee markup. A quorum is present, so we may proceed.

Today we will consider two items—actually, three items. The first will be H. Res. 496, the House Committee Funding Resolution; secondly, a committee resolution on the new House-wide electronic posting standards; and, third, consideration of the revised Members' Congressional Handbook.

H. Res. 496 is a resolution authorizing committee funding levels for the second session of the 112th Congress. Last month, this committee held a full-day hearing at which we heard from nearly every chair and ranking member. As some may recall, with the agreement of Mr. Brady when he was chairman, we started a process by which committee chairmen and ranking members appeared before our committee on an annual basis to talk about their budgets, rather than just once every 2 years.

During the hearing that we had this year, we discussed how each committee absorbed the 5 percent budget reduction implemented at the beginning of the 112th Congress and how, as we continue to reduce government spending, they will manage additional reductions for this next year. Listening to the 19 House committees that testified provided important insight into their needs in serving this institution and in its role of oversight.

As I have mentioned before, as chairman of the Committee on House Administration, I certainly understand the challenges of stretching committee resources. However, as the representative of California's Third District, where constituents are continuing to struggle to make ends meet, where we have a 12.4 percent unemployment rate, I appreciate every committee's willingness to do more with less.

This resolution, matching authorization levels with the reduced funding levels, required us to make extremely difficult decisions. Most committees will be faced with tremendous oversight responsibilities in the year 2012. Particularly daunting will be Armed Services' charge of managing the automatic sequestration of $600 billion in defense funding triggered by the Budget Control Act superimposed over the already-existing cuts that were mandated by previous votes.

In addition to Armed Services, the Ethics Committee, tasked with the thankless job, I would say, of holding Members and staff to the highest ethical standards, has requested, and will receive under this resolution, a reprieve from authorization reductions.

To offset these exceptions, we have identified and reduced the authorization of budget committees that we feel are able, even though it is difficult, to absorb a slightly larger reduction in 2012. In addition to ourselves, that is the Committee on House Administration; the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology; and the Committee on Small Business, who will receive slightly higher reductions than the 6.4 percent cut applied to the remaining House committees. Provided that their needs may change throughout the year, we can always consider future funding resolutions.

Again, this process did require difficult decisions, and I want to thank each member of the committee for their cooperation and each of the committees for their cooperation.

Our second item for consideration is the committee resolution on House-wide electronic posting standards that will vastly improve public access to House and committee documents.

Effective January 1, 2012, these standards require the Clerk of the House to establish and maintain a centralized Web site where the public can access all House bills, amendments, and resolutions for floor consideration in XML, an open, searchable format. These standards also instruct the Clerk to establish additional functionality on the centralized site to support committee documents posted in XML.

With the adoption of these standards, for the first time the public will have easy access to searchable information on pending and adopted legislation. It is our hope that this enhanced access will increase constituent feedback on legislative initiatives and ultimately improve the legislative process.

We would certainly like to thank the Clerk of the House and each committee for their assistance and cooperation throughout this process. And I look forward to identifying ways to further increase transparency.

And then the third matter that we will bring up is the Members' Congressional Handbook. This has been a project of some duration, in which we have received active participation by the minority side. We have incorporated a number of their suggestions in the changes that have been made in the handbook. We think we make it much more understandable to Members. There is greater specificity. It is consistent with the statutes and House rules. It updates all references to those, the offices and phone numbers.

Substantive changes: We didn't think the franking regulation should be in the handbook, that it ought to be in a separate handbook. The town hall section has been updated to reflect technological changes. The Web site section has been updated to reflect technological changes. To make it very specific so that Members know, food is permitted for two legislative planning sessions for Members' offices. The security portion has been rewritten in light of the new security concerns. Representational programs have been identified and added.

We clear up the question about whether Members or their staff, under extraordinary circumstances, like a bad snowstorm that would not allow people to return to their residences in this area, whether those kinds of costs could be reimbursed. Under extraordinary circumstances, that would be allowed with written authorization from the committee. And then we specifically identify the categories where advance payments can be made, payments from one year to the next.

We think these are all good changes that will allow easier understanding of what the rules are, allow Members to ensure that they abide by the rules, and to give direction both to committees and staff when future questions come up.

And so I would like to thank my colleagues for being here today.

And I would now recognize the ranking member, Mr. Brady, for any opening statement he may wish to give.

Mr. BRADY. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Chairman, I oppose this unprecedented committee defunding resolution, which will reduce committee budgets by an average of 6.4 percent during the second session. The cut comes 9 months after committees had already received their budgets for the entire 112th Congress in House Resolution 147, following the 5 percent cut in total House fundings.

As we heard testimony during our recent follow-up on oversight hearings, additional sudden budget cuts undermine the House's basic legislative and oversight functions. We should listen to the testimony from our colleagues where many of them said they cannot afford these cuts.

We should also recognize that the original 5 percent cut was sufficient. Staff now will have to be dismissed on some committees, if this resolution passes, without any rationale or notice. And the Democratic minority will bear the brunt of this cut. As you know, when you took over control of the House, you now have two-thirds of all the committee staff and we went from two-thirds down to one-third. We had to make our cuts, and that is the way it works, and we understand that. But now they will have to take another additional cut after a cut before.

And that is why I am going to offer an amendment. I am just hoping that some of our committees can be resourceful enough to try to make do with these cuts without having to lay off any additional staff. It is not their fault. I think and I am sure that you agree with me and everybody else here agrees that we have great staff here. I know I could not function without my staff.

And we do have a barebones staff now. I do recognize and understand the fact that—it is not underestimated that we have to do some kind of cutting somewhere. We have already shown that. And I just hope that we don't do it to the detriment of how we can function in this House.

So, Mr. Chairman, with that, I urge my colleagues to defeat this resolution.

The CHAIRMAN. I thank the gentleman for his comments, although I may disagree with him.

And I do just want to say for the record that the ranking member has been very open about his positions on this but also very cooperative in tough decisions that we have had to make.

All Members are reminded that they have an opportunity to put a statement in the record, if they wish.

The CHAIRMAN. And I would now call up and lay before the committee House Resolution 496 to adjust the amount provided for the expenses of certain committees.

Without objection, the bill will be considered as read and open for amendment at any point.

[The bill follows:]

The CHAIRMAN. Are there any amendments to the resolution?

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes?

Mr. BRADY. I would like to offer an amendment to the resolution.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman is recognized for that.

Mr. BRADY. I would like to offer an amendment to provide the opportunity for committee staff to receive their salaries for up to 60 days if they are dismissed as a result of passage of this resolution.

This is a common practice in the private sector and a lot of other—and all sectors of people that, when they do get laid off, especially at city, State, Federal, that they do provide this.

The amendment is a modified version of House Resolution 1104, brought to the floor at the end of the 109th Congress by our former chairman, Vern Ehlers.

The CHAIRMAN. If the gentleman will yield for just——

Mr. BRADY. Sure.

The CHAIRMAN [continuing]. A moment, without objection, the amendment will be considered as read.

[The amendment by Mr. Brady follows:]

AMENDMENT TO H. RES. 496
OFFERED BY M. _____

Add at the end the following new section:

1 SEC. 2. ADJUSTMENT OF AMOUNTS TO PROVIDE FOR SEV-
2 ERANCE PAY FOR STAFF DISPLACED BY RE-
3 DUCTIONS.

4 (a) EXCEPTION DESCRIBED.—

5 (1) ELIGIBILITY.—Notwithstanding section 1,
6 to the extent that a committee to which this resolu-
7 tion applies makes payments for the salaries of eligi-
8 ble displaced staff members, the amounts provided
9 for the expenses of the committee under such section
10 shall be increased by the amount of such payments
11 made by the committee.

12 (2) PERIOD FOR WHICH PAYMENTS MAY BE 13 MADE.—A committee may make a payment for the 14 salary of an eligible staff member under paragraph 15 (1) for a period not to exceed 60 days following the 16 date of the staff member's separation from employ-17 ment or until the eligible displaced staff member be-18 comes otherwise gainfully employed, whichever is 19 earlier.

1 (3) ACCEPTANCE OF STATEMENT OF LACK OF
2 GAINFUL EMPLOYMENT.—A statement in writing by
3 an eligible displaced staff member that the member
4 was not gainfully employed during any period or 5 portion thereof for which payment is claimed under 6 this subsection shall be accepted as prima facie evi-
7 dence that the member was not so employed.

8 (b) NOTIFICATION OF ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUALS.—The 9 Chief Administrative Officer shall notify the Committee on 10 House Administration of the name of each eligible dis-
11 placed staff member.

12 (c) ELIGIBLE DISPLACED STAFF MEMBER DE-
13 FINED.—In this section, the term “eligible displaced staff
14 member” means an individual described as follows:

15 (1) The individual is separated from employ-
16 ment from a committee of the House of Representa-
17 tives solely and directly as a result of a reduction
18 provided under this resolution in the amount pro-
19 vided for the expenses of the committee for the pe-
20 riod beginning at noon on January 3, 2012, and 21 ending immediately before noon on January 3, 2013

23 such amount provided under subsection (a)).

25 ployment described in paragraph (1), the individual

1 was an employee of the committee involved for not
2 fewer than 183 days (whether or not the service was 3 continuous).

4 (3) The individual submits an application to the 5 Chief Administrative Officer to receive payments
6 under this section.

7 (d) REGULATIONS.—The Committee on House Ad-
8 ministration shall promulgate regulations to carry out this 9 section.

The CHAIRMAN. And the gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes to speak on behalf of it.

Mr. BRADY. Thank you.

Unfortunately, it was withdrawn prior to a final vote. That resolution, unlike this one, also included transition funding for departing leadership staff.

Again, not to reiterate, but I just feel badly for the people that do work—and all of them work extremely hard. I love when they pull my BlackBerry up and they tell us our schedule and they put the question mark behind when we are going to be leaving here.

And, as you all know, our staff stay right with us. They don't get any overtime, they don't get any compensation time. And if we could just give them a little something to give them a little bit of time, because this is coming on them quickly too.

And, hopefully, it doesn't have to happen. Hopefully, we can be creative through our committees and the rest of the committees can be creative, where we don't have to hurt the little people and the people that are here supporting us 24-7.

So, with that, Mr. Chairman, I just appreciate you taking my amendment and ask for its adoption.

The CHAIRMAN. I thank the gentleman.

Are there other Members who wish to speak to the amendment?

Mr. GONZALEZ. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman from Texas.

Mr. GONZALEZ. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

I, of course, would be supportive of the amendment.

This is not a new idea, and it actually has been argued from Members on the other side of the aisle. We all recall 2006 and the debate then, and it was appropriate. Taking into consideration that individuals will be losing their jobs as a result of more austere times, our belt-tightening on the Hill, which is the appropriate thing to do, but, still, this is a hardship that is going to befall many families at a more difficult time than when this was debated previously, let's say in 2006, when the Democrats took the House and we knew that there would be a reduction of staff members on the Republican side. But I think the same rule would apply and the same consideration as to the families that are going to be impacted.

It is a more difficult time today. All of us have to acknowledge the difference between 2006, even though we were on the road to the recession, no doubt, but the full impact of it has been felt. And not to make things harder or more dire for those that may not be employed on the Hill anymore or in the committees and the wonderful work they provide us, it is going to be a tough job market. We all know that.

So that a severance package, which, obviously, is commonly an industry standard in the private sector, shouldn't be something so foreign to us, when we think in terms of fairness, when individuals lose jobs through no fault of their own, not as a result of under-performance, but actually they are valued members of what we try to do up here. And if we are going to do any budget cutting, I think we have to do it in a fair and equitable manner.

So I am glad that Mr. Brady is introducing the amendment, and I am hoping that we can act accordingly and in a fair fashion.

And I would yield back.

The CHAIRMAN. I thank the gentleman for his comments.

I might just recognize myself to oppose this amendment. I do not do that with any great joy. We are in very difficult times. Individual Members, in terms of the impact of the cutbacks in our own offices, have had to make some very, very difficult decisions. In my own office, I am down two of my staffers as a direct result of the budget constraints that we have had to impose.

While a couple of chairmen said they might have to lay off, most indicated—chairmen or ranking members—most indicated that they would do everything they could to ensure that that did not occur.

And this is different than the times when there is a change in leadership from one party to the other. And I know we have had attempts to try and have severance packages in those particular circumstances. Frankly, we just don't have the money to do that at this time.

And so I would reluctantly oppose the gentleman's amendment.

Mr. GINGREY. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. GINGREY. Mr. Chairman, I know that this amendment, as I read through it and listened to Mr. Brady and Mr. Gonzalez, is coming from the heart and an act of compassion on their part, and I commend them for that.

And, you know, we could quibble, you know, about the number of days that a person had been employed during the year and whether it was continuous or not continuous service and all that. But I, too, while initially I felt that I would support this amendment, I am going to be opposed to it because of two points.

And the chairman addressed maybe at least one of those points, in regard to if we made this a part of the resolution, then it would be an entitlement that would have to be done. And we would have to get budget authority and appropriations to do that.

And it is within the prerogative of each and every committee to decide in their own budget, even though I know the budgets are getting skimpier and skimpier and more difficult to find the resources to give severance pay, whether one committee does it for a month, another committee does it for 2 months, and they set the parameters upon which a severed employee would be eligible for that pay, if any.

I think that is really what goes on in the private sector, as well. Mr. Brady referenced, you know, the private sector, and that is absolutely true. But there are many companies that, you know, you get 2 weeks' notice that your job is going to be eliminated and you get paid up to the last day you work, and that is it. Others are more generous, if they can afford to be.

So I understand where Mr. Brady is coming from in regard to the amendment, but for those reasons I will also oppose it.

The CHAIRMAN. If there is no further discussion, I will call a vote.

All those in favor of the amendment offered by the ranking member, say, "aye."

And those opposed, "nay."

In the opinion of the chair, the nays have it.

Are there any other amendments?

If not, I move that the committee favorably report House Resolution 496 to the House.

And the question is on the motion.

All those in favor, signify by saying, "aye."

And those opposed, "no."

In the opinion of the chair, the ayes have it, and the motion is agreed to.

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes?

Mr. BRADY. Could I announce that the minority requests 2 additional calendar days, provided by Clause 2 of Rule XI of the rules of the House, to file views.

The CHAIRMAN. Without objection.

Mr. BRADY. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Without objection, the motion to reconsider is laid on the table.

Pursuant to Clause 2 of Rule XI, Members are entitled to 2 additional calendar days to file such views in writing and signed by the Member with the clerk of the committee.

I ask unanimous consent the staff be authorized to make any necessary technical and conforming changes to the measure that the committee just considered.

Without objection, it is so ordered.

I now call up and lay before the committee Committee Resolution 112-9 to adopt online posting standards.

Without objection, the resolution will be considered as read and open for amendment at any point.

[The resolution follows:]

COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

COMMITTEE RESOLUTION 112-9

Standards for the Electronic Posting of House and Committee Documents & Data

Resolved, that the following regulations, collectively referred to as the “Standards for the Electronic Posting of House and Committee Documents & Data”, are hereby adopted, as follows:

The CHAIRMAN. Are there any amendments to the resolution?

If not, I move that the committee adopt the resolution. The question is on the motion.

All those in favor of the motion, signify by saying, "aye."

All opposed, signify by saying, "nay."

In the opinion of the chair, the ayes have it, and the motion is agreed to.

Without objection, the motion to reconsider is laid upon the table.

I ask unanimous consent that the staff be authorized to make any necessary technical and conforming changes to the measure that the committee just considered.

Without objection, so ordered.

The last matter that we have would be for us to consider a committee resolution to adopt a revised version of the Members' Congressional Handbook. This version, which has been made available to the members of the committee, is the one before us.

INTRODUCTION: MEMBERS' REPRESENTATIONAL ALLOWANCE

During each session of Congress, each Member has a single Members' Representational Allowance ("MRA") available to support the conduct of official and representational duties to the district from which he or she is elected. Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred by the Member or the Member's employees within the United States, its territories, and possessions in support of the conduct of the Member's official and representational duties to the district from which he or she is elected are reimbursable in accordance with the regulations contained in this Members' Congressional Handbook.

"Ordinary and necessary" means reasonable expenditures in support of official and representational duties to the district from which he or she is elected that are consistent with all applicable federal laws, Rules of the House of Representatives and regulations of the Committee on House Administration.

The following regulations of the Committee on House Administration, collectively known as the Members' Congressional Handbook ("Handbook"), govern all expenditures from the MRA.

The Handbook regulations are guidelines that assist Members in determining whether expenses are reimbursable. Therefore, the Handbook contains broad descriptions of reimbursable expenses, but is not an exhaustive list of such expenses.

Questions about reimbursement of an expense should be directed to the Committee on House Administration at x58281 prior to incurring the expense.

For all questions relating to equipment and equipment-related issues, refer to the User's Guide to Purchasing Equipment, Software, and Related Services, available from the Committee on House Administration.

Administrative, financial and non-legislative support services (e.g., equipment purchases, technology standards and services, office supplies, room reservation and set-up) are acquired through the Office of the House Chief Administrative Officer ("CAO"). For further information about the CAO's services, please refer to HouseNet, the House intranet (<https://housenet.house.gov>) or the CAO's services office, First Call, at x58000.

The Handbook is a collection of regulations issued by a vote of the Members of the Committee. In drafting these regulations, the Committee consults with other committees of the House, House leadership, Member office staff, and the Officers of the House.

General

When an expense is incurred, the Member must determine the primary purpose for the expenditure. Is the primary purpose for the expenditure official and representational? Or is it primarily related to personal, campaign-related political party, campaign or committee activities? Only expenses the primary purpose of which are official and representational and which are incurred in accordance with the Handbook are reimbursable.

1. The MRA may only be used for official and representational expenses.
2. A Member may expend personal funds in support of official and representational duties.
3. The MRA may not be used to pay for any expenses related to activities or events that are primarily

MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL HANDBOOK

- social in nature.
4. The MRA may not pay for personal expenses.
 5. The MRA may not pay for campaign expenses.
 6. The MRA may not pay for campaign-related political party expenses.
 7. The MRA may not pay for committee expenses.
 8. Committee resources may not pay for a Member's official and representational expenses.
 9. Except where authorized by the Committee on Ethics, campaign funds may not pay for a Member's official and representational expenses.
 10. A Member may not maintain, or have maintained for his use, an unofficial office account for the purpose of defraying or reimbursing ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in support of a Member's official and representational duties.
 11. A Member may not accept from any private source in-kind support having monetary value for an official activity.
 12. Only appropriated funds, not personal or unofficial funds, may be used to pay for mail sent under the frank.
 13. Each Member is personally responsible for the payments of any official and representational expenses incurred that exceed the provided MRA or that are incurred but are not reimbursable under these regulations.
 14. Unless specifically authorized by an applicable provision of federal law, House Rules, or Committee Regulations, no Member, relative of the Member, or anyone with whom the Member has a professional or legal relationship may directly benefit from the expenditure of the MRA.
 15. The MRA is available for services provided and expenses incurred from January 3 of one year through January 2 of the following year. All expenses incurred will be charged to the allowance available on the date the services were provided or the expenses were incurred. Upon the death, resignation, or expulsion of a Member, the Member's allowance will be made available only for services provided and expenses incurred at the direction of the Member up through the last day of the Member's term in office. Otherwise such funds will be subject to the direction of the Clerk of the House.
 16. Requests to obligate prior year funds after January 2 of the succeeding year will be considered by the Committee when a Member provides documentation demonstrating a bona fide intent to obligate the prior year's funds during the applicable year.
 17. The MRA is not transferable between years.
 18. Members may not use official resources to misrepresent their current official positions or titles within the House.
 19. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1913, the MRA may not be used for certain activities in the absence of authorization by Congress. Contact the Committee on House Administration at x58281 for more information.

Budgeting and Disclosure

The Committee recommends that each Member establish an annual budget for the MRA. To assist in this process, the Office of Finance sends each Member monthly statements showing year-to-date expenditures and obligated amounts. The quarterly expenditures reflected in these statements are compiled and published as the Quarterly Statement of Disbursements, which is a public document.

Disbursements

Disbursements from the MRA are made on a reimbursement or direct payment basis and require specific documentation and Member certification as to accuracy and compliance with applicable federal laws, House Rules, and Committee regulations.

Reimbursements and payments from the MRA may be made only to the Member, the Member's employees, or a vendor providing services to support the operation of the Member's offices.

Incidental Use

Incidental personal use of equipment and supplies owned or leased by, or the cost of which is reimbursed by the House of Representatives is permitted only when such use is negligible in nature, frequency, time consumed, and expense.

For example, limited use of government resources to access the Internet, to send or receive personal email, or to make personal phone calls is permissible, so long as the use meets the above criteria, and otherwise conforms with the Regulations of the Committee on House Administration and the Code of Official Conduct (House Rule XXIII).

Each Member office may adopt a more restrictive incidental use policy.

Overspending

Each Member is personally responsible for the payment of any official and representational expenses incurred that exceed the authorized MRA. If a Member incurs an obligation to the U.S. House of Representatives and the amount of the obligation incurred exceeds the MRA, the Member shall pay the obligation from personal funds. If the Member fails to pay the obligation voluntarily, the CAO will deduct the amount owed from any pay, mileage, or expense money due to the Member in the case of a sitting Member or through an administrative offset or legal action in the case of a former Member. The Office of Finance will notify a Member if that Member is projected to overspend the MRA.

Contact the Office of Finance at x57474 or the Committee on House Administration at x58281 for assistance with accounting and budgeting.

The name, title, and pay of such an individual will appear on each employing authority's Payroll Certification. Such employees may not receive pay totaling more than the highest rate of basic pay in the Speaker's Pay Order applicable to the positions they occupy.
3. Employees may not be shared between a Member or Committee office and the office of an Officer of the House if the employee, in the course of duties for an Officer, has access to the financial information, payroll information, equipment account information, or information systems of either Member, Committee, or Leadership offices.
4. Each House employee who, during any pay period, is simultaneously employed by three or more House employing authorities is required to inform each employing authority in writing of the employee's employment status and any change in employment status with other employing authorities.
5. Each House employee who, during any pay period, is simultaneously employed by three or more House employing authorities is required to file with the Office of Finance a signed Acknowledgment of Receipt and Understanding of Shared Employee Manual and Certification of Continued Compliance upon becoming simultaneously employed by three or more employing authorities.

Member offices are not authorized to procure consultant services.

Contractors

Members may contract with firms or individuals only for general, non-legislative and non-financial, office services (e.g., equipment maintenance, systems integration, data entry, staff training, photography, custodial services, web services) for a specified time period not to exceed the Member's current term. Fellows may be assigned to a Member office.

Fellows do not count against the Member's employee ceiling.

Fellows may not be reimbursed from House appropriated funds. Outside of using existing office resources, if a fellow incurs an expense as a result of work performed for the Member, the fellow may either be reimbursed by the fellow's sponsoring entity or a Member may use personal funds as authorized under House Rules.

The use of fellows is subject to regulations established by the Committee on Ethics. Contact the Committee on Ethics at x57103.

3. The total of such individuals and employees may not exceed 22 individuals.

Volunteers

The term "volunteer" means an individual performing services in a House office without compensation from any source.

The voluntary service should be of significant educational benefit to the participant and such voluntary assistance should not supplant the normal and regular duties of paid employees.

Volunteers should be required to agree, in advance and in writing, to serve without compensation.

Volunteers do not count against the Member's employee ceiling.

The use of volunteers is subject to regulations established by the Committee on Ethics. Contact the Committee on Ethics at x57103.

Similarly, if a Member becomes the employing authority of a relative who was hired by someone else (e.g., the Member ascends to the chairmanship of a Committee or subcommittee for which the relative is already working), the relative may remain on the payroll. However, the Member may not then give that individual further promotions or raises, other than cost-of-living or other across-the-board adjustments.

Non-Disclosure Oath

House Rule XXIII, clause 13, requires Members and employees to execute an oath of non-disclosure before having access to classified information.

Each Member's office that does not have an employee paid at or above the threshold must designate one employee as the "Principal Assistant" who must file a Financial Disclosure Statement.

Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred by Members and their employees, in support of the filing of reports consistent with the provisions of the Ethics in Government Act, are reimbursable.

Contact the Committee on Ethics at x57103 for guidance concerning the current applicable rate of pay and other information regarding Financial Disclosure requirements.

6. Lump sum payments will be disclosed separately in the Quarterly Statement of Disbursements;
7. Lump sum payments are considered as part of "rate of pay" under the Speaker's Pay Order;
8. Lump sum payments are considered "supplemental wages" for taxation purposes; and
9. Lump sum payments are not considered as part of "basic pay" for purposes of calculating Thrift Savings Plan, life insurance, or federal pensions.

Contact the Committee on Ethics at x57103 for information on the treatment of lump-sum payments with regard to financial disclosure, post-employment restrictions, and outside earned income limitations.

Outside Earned Income

Members and employees receiving basic pay at a rate equal to or greater than 120 percent of the minimum basic pay for GS-15 for at least 90 days in a calendar year are subject to the outside earned income limitation established by 5 U.S.C. app. § 501(a)(1) and House Rule XXV, clause 1(a)(1).

Such adjustments must be received by the Office of Payroll and Benefits on or before the 15th day of the month in which the adjustment is to be effective.

Retroactive pay adjustments are not authorized.

Payroll Schedule

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 5505, the monthly payroll is based on a 30-day pay period.

Payment is made on the last business day of the month.

Rates of Compensation

Members are responsible for adhering to the applicable minimum wage provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act ($7.25 per hour as of July 24, 2009).

Interns are not employees for purposes of compliance with the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The maximum rate of pay is established for Member offices by the Speaker's Pay Order.

Terminations

Terminations must be made on a Payroll Authorization Form and submitted to the Office of Payroll and Benefits as soon as the date of termination is known. If the termination notice is received by Payroll and Benefits after the 15th day of the month during which the termination becomes effective, the payroll for that month may have already been processed.

Leave

The Member determines the terms and conditions of employment, including provisions for leave (e.g., Annual, Administrative, and Sick).

Employees on Family and Medical Leave remain eligible for all benefits. Please contact OHEC at x57075 with questions concerning FMLA leave.

Furlough

Furlough is an absence without pay initiated by the Member. Placement in furlough status is at the discretion of the Member, unless a statute otherwise requires placement in such status.

1. To be eligible for appointment to furlough status at the discretion of the Member, an employee must have been employed by the Member for the entire month prior to the effective date of furlough status.
2. An employee placed in a furlough status continues to fill an employee position. The name of such employees will be listed on the monthly payroll certification forms.
3. Continuation of employee benefits while in a furlough status:
 - a. Health benefits enrollment and coverage may be continued for up to 12 months. However, to maintain such enrollment and coverage, an employee placed in a furlough status is responsible for the payment of the employee's portion of the insurance premium for the time period of the furlough status, either by direct payment or by incurring a debt to the House. Employees should contact the Office of Payroll and Benefits for more information.

COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

An employee may not receive fees for service as juror in a court of the United States or the District of Columbia; or as a witness on behalf of the United States or the District of Columbia. If an employee receives an amount (other than travel expenses) for service as a juror or witness in such a court, the employee must remit such amount to the Office of Finance for deposit in the general fund of the Treasury.

Leave Without Pay

Leave Without Pay ("LWOP") is an absence without pay. LWOP status is initiated by the employee and is subject to Member approval, unless a statute otherwise requires placement in such leave status. To be eligible, an employee must have been employed by the Member for the entire month prior to the effective date of the LWOP status.

1. As a basic condition for approval of LWOP status, there should be a reasonable assurance that the employee will return to duty at the end of the approved period. Members are encouraged to contact the Committee on Ethics at x57103 prior to approving a LWOP status request to confirm that no conflict of interest issues exist.

2. LWOP status should be requested in advance of the period of absence.
3. LWOP status may not exceed 12 months in a 24-month period.
4. When an employee has been appointed to LWOP status, he or she continues to fill a payroll position. The name of such employees will be listed on the monthly payroll certification forms.
5. Continuation of employee benefits while on LWOP status:
 - a. Health benefits enrollment and coverage may be continued for up to 12 months. Under the provisions of the Federal Tort Claims Act, codified at 28 U.S.C. § 2671-2680, the United States acts as a self-insurer and recognizes liability for the negligent and wrongful acts or omissions of its employees acting within the scope of their official and representational duties. The United States is liable to the same extent an individual would be in like circumstances.

Although the Federal Tort Claims Act is not the equivalent of private liability insurance, it does provide an aggrieved party with administrative recourse, and if that proves unsatisfactory, legal recourse for damage or injury sustained. Thus, to the extent negligent acts of Members or congressional staff, while conducting official and representational duties, result in either property damage or bodily injury, such damage or injury should be compensable under the Act in a manner that affords protection similar to private liability insurance.

However, if the provisions of the Federal Tort Claims Act are not considered adequate, the ordinary and necessary expenses for liability insurance to cover these risks are reimbursable. When a compensable event occurs, the deductible portion of a policy may be paid from the MRA.

Electronic Communications

Ordinary and necessary expenses related to electronic communications (Internet, fax machines, etc.) are reimbursable. All official electronic communication content, which is sent out as an unsolicited mass communication, must comply with the Franking Regulations.

All unsolicited mass communications must be reported on the Quarterly Mass Communications Report.

Subscribed Emails

A subscribed email is an email sent to individuals who have subscribed to the Member's email list. Members must notify individuals who subscribe to email updates that the individual is authorizing the Member to send regular email updates from the Member's office to the individual's email account. All email updates to subscribers must contain an option that enables the individual to unsubscribe from the email list. Members may send subscribed email updates without obtaining an advisory opinion, but the contents must still adhere to Franking regulations.

Non-subscribed Emails

If each email address used in a mass communication was not obtained with an individual subscribing for subscribed email updates, then the Member must receive a Franking Advisory prior to the distribution of the mass communication.

Newspaper Inserts

Ordinary and necessary expenses related to the production and distribution of newspaper inserts are reimbursable. The content must be in compliance with the Franking Regulations.

There are certain election-related restrictions on mass communications.

Unsolicited Mass Communication Restrictions

Unsolicited mass communication is defined consistent with Franking Regulations as any unsolicited communication of substantially identical content to 500 or more persons in a session of Congress.

Except where noted, unsolicited mass communications, regardless of the means of transmittal, must receive an Advisory opinion from the Franking Commission, prior to dissemination. Advisory Opinions may be obtained from the Franking Commission at x60647.

Expenditures from the MRA for unsolicited mass communications, regardless of the means of transmittal, are prohibited if such communication occurs fewer than 90 days immediately before the date of any primary or general election (whether regular, special, or runoff) in which the Member's name will appear on an official ballot for election or reelection to public office.

Examples of unsolicited mass communications are:

1. Radio, TV, internet, or newspaper advertisements of town hall meetings or of a personal appearance of the Member and/or the Member's employees at an official event
2. Mass mailings
3. Newspaper inserts
4. Mass automated phone calls
5. Mass Facsimiles
6. Posters, flyers, leaflets, handouts, etc., that are distributed as mass communications
7. Radio programs aired on broadcast time purchased with official funds

This restriction does not apply to the following:

1. Direct responses to communications (solicited communications)
2. Communications to Members of Congress and other government officials
3. News releases, press releases, or media releases (written or recorded communications from Members, directed at the news media), in any format. Note that expenses for production and transmittal are reimbursable; expenses for satellite downlink and broadcast are not reimbursable.
4. Websites (including a Member's official website) and other electronic bulletin boards on which information is posted for voluntary public access
5. Advertisements for employee position and internship openings, U.S. Military Academy Days, and An Artistic Discovery

Websites

Internet sites paid for with official funds (Websites) are a series of centrally maintained Web pages, accessible to the public via the Internet and stored on a specific host. The home page is the first accessible page for that site.

1. Ordinary and necessary expenses associated with the creation and continued operation of Websites, in support of the Member's official and representational duties, are reimbursable.
2. Except as noted in item 6, below, Members' Web sites must be located in the HOUSE.GOV host-domain and must be hosted in conformance with the regulations issued by the Committee on House Administration.

3. Members' Websites may be maintained by either House Information Resources (HIR), the Member's congressional office, or a private vendor authorized to provide Web services to the House in compliance with the regulations issued by the Committee on House Administration.
4. Members' Websites may link to Committee Websites, but Committee Websites may not be located on Websites paid for by the MRA.
5. Members may include information within their Website about CMO issues and activities. All CMO references within a Website must relate to the Member's official and representational duties.
6. In addition to their official HOUSE.GOV website, a Member may establish profiles, pages, channels or any similar presence on third-party sites that allow individuals or organizations to offer information about themselves to the public (Social Media Accounts). Member-controlled content on Social Media Accounts is subject to the same requirements as content on Member websites.
7. Websites should be compliant with the accessibility standards set out in § 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the World Wide Web Consortium's Web Content Accessibility Guidelines.
8. Websites may link to non-government sites, so long as the link content relates to the Member's official and representational duties to the district from which he or she is elected, and the content would not otherwise violate any other House rules, regulations, or federal laws. Internet resources may not contain content that misrepresents a Member's current role in Congress.
9. For Member internet social media accounts, Members should ensure their social media URLs and account names reflect their position. Departing Members may not maintain their official social media pages/sites after they leave the House; however, they may retain their personal accounts provided the name (and other identifying information) of such accounts clearly do not convey the impression that the former Member is still a Member of the House, or that the account is an official account of the House.

MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL HANDBOOK

Content

The content of a Member's Website:

1. The official content of any material posted by the Member on any website must be in compliance with Federal law and House Rules and Regulations applicable to official communications and germane to the conduct of the Member's official and representational duties. Accessing a web site (whether by using a link or by other means) is to be treated as a "solicited communication" from a Member's office.
2. May not include personal (outside of incidental references), political party (except for political party affiliations), or campaign information.
3. May not include grassroots lobbying or solicit support for a Member's position.
4. May not generate, circulate, solicit, or encourage signing petitions.
5. May not include any advertisement for any private individual, firm, or corporation, or imply in any manner that the government endorses or favors any specific commercial product, commodity, or service.

Name (URL)

The URL name for an official Website located in the HOUSE.GOV domain must be recognizably derivative or representative of the name of the Member or the name of the office sponsoring the Website and comply with the regulations issued by the Committee on House Administration.

The URL name for an official Website located in the HOUSE.GOV domain may not:

1. Be a slogan.
2. Imply in any manner that the House endorses or favors any specific commercial product, commodity, or service.
3. Be deceptive and must accurately represent the Member's name or district represented.

A Member may use personal funds to purchase a personalized URL as a locating address, so long as it points back and resolves to the official website address.

Information Security

The Committee on House Administration issues and maintains policy and standards to guide Members and staff for the protection of House information and equipment.

The purpose of these policies and standards is to protect the Members and the House from the inappropriate release of privileged or protected information. Categories of information designed to be protected include: legislative information, legally protected information such as personally identifiable information and medical information protected under HIPPA. Information related to the advance travel plans and locations of Members and staff should be protected to help ensure the safety of Members and staff.

National Security Information is protected by law and procedures established by the Sergeant at Arms' Office of House Security.

Members and staff are expected to comply with applicable laws, House Rules, and House Security Policy in their daily practice of using the Internet, House computers, and mobile equipment. The House Information Security Office at x66448 offers practical guidance to assist Members in this effort.

TRAVEL

General

Travel by Members, Members' employees, and vendors in support of the official and representational duties of that Member to the district from which he or she is elected is official travel. At times, authorized travelers may need to travel to remote parts of the district or airline schedule may not meet the traveler's need. Members and staff may use an alternate or other convenient airport, so long as Washington, D.C., or the district is the primary destination.

Ordinary and necessary expenses associated with official travel are reimbursable.

Official travel includes local travel and travel away from home overnight to conduct official and representational duties, when returning to the duty station or residence is impractical.

Living expenses and commuting expenses are not reimbursable, except in extraordinary circumstances (e.g., extreme weather conditions, staff working beyond availability of mass transit or rideshare arrangements, etc.) when a Member receives written authorization from the Committee. "Living expenses" include meals, housing, and other personal expenses incurred at the Member's or employee's residence or duty station. "Commuting expenses" are transportation expenses incurred by the Member or employee while commuting between their residence and duty station.

Official travel, paid for with the MRA, may not be for personal, campaign-related political party, campaign, or committee purposes.

Official travel cannot originate from or terminate at a campaign event. Official travel may not be combined with or related to travel or travel-related expenses paid for with campaign funds.

Official travel may not exceed 60 consecutive days.

Members have two duty stations: their Congressional District and Washington, DC. Staff duty stations are determined by their primary residence.

Vendor Official Travel

Official travel also includes travel by a vendor when traveling to provide service or training to Member offices.

A vendor is an employee of a private company that provides maintenance and support for equipment and software (computer and non-computer) under a valid House contract or working on a time and material basis.

All travel costs must be negotiated and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to vendor travel. Offices are encouraged to utilize the federal government per diem rates established by the General Services Administration for vendor travel costs as a benchmark. For a listing of the per diem rates by state and locality, see <http://www.gsa.gov/portal/category/21287>.

Unexpected Official Travel

Official travel includes travel to an official point from a location visited on personal travel by Members and staff, if the travel to the official point is necessitated by an unexpected official duty (e.g., previously unscheduled House vote, natural disaster, or civil disorder). In such cases, return travel to the point of personal destination is considered official and reimbursable and is eligible for government rate.

Combined Travel

MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL HANDBOOK

Combined travel is travel by a Member or their employees for the primary purpose of supporting the official and representational duties of the Member, but includes an intervening destination or an additional time period that is included for personal purposes.

Combined travel requires that:

1. The primary purpose of the travel must be official and representational. The personal segment of the combined travel may not be purchased at a government rate or be purchased with a Government Travel Card.
2. The traveler seeks reimbursement for either the government rate of the direct route and means to the destination required for official and representational business, or the actual traveled fare, whichever is less.
3. The travel back from the personal destination to Washington, DC, or the district may be reimbursed at the government rate or the normal district to Washington, DC, government rate, whichever is less, so long as the return travel originates from a point within the United States, its territories or possessions
4. The traveler must attach a brief memo to the voucher submitted for combined travel reimbursement, stating that the official travel and personal travel was combined for personal convenience.

In the event of a segment of private travel, there is an absolute prohibition on reimbursement from official funds for the private travel segment.

Official Travel Expenses

Official travel expenses including transportation, lodging, meals (excluding alcohol), fees (e.g., parking, tolls, ticket change fees, etc.), and other ordinary and necessary incidental expenses while on official travel status are reimbursable.

Shared Official Travel Expenses

Official travel expenses may be shared by more than one Member or committee office. The division of expenses must accurately reflect each traveler's expenses, and offices may only pay for the expenses of their respective Member, staff, and authorized vendors.

Chartered Aircraft

Ordinary and necessary expenses related to chartering an aircraft for official travel are reimbursable when:

1. Passengers are restricted to Members, their employees, and their immediate family members (spouse, child, parent), the names of whom must be stated on the voucher.
2. If an immediate family member uses a chartered aircraft with the Member, the Member may seek reimbursement for the full cost of the chartered aircraft and the family member must submit a check to the Office of Finance payable to the U.S. Treasury equivalent to the cost of a comparable commercial first class fare. A letter explaining the reason for its submission must accompany the check.
3. Other non-congressional individuals may travel on the Member chartered aircraft when the following criteria are met:
 - a. The chartered aircraft vendor has the ability to charge based on individual seating in the same manner as a commercial aircraft vendor; and
 - b. The other passengers are federal, state and local officials, and are joining the Members and staff in support of congressional issues related to the district.

Corporate or Private Aircraft

Reimbursement for corporate or private aircraft is subject to House Rules. Please contact the Committee on Ethics for information regarding the permissible use of corporate or private aircraft at x57103. The Committee on Ethics may grant approval in writing for the use of corporate or private aircraft. If the Committee on Ethics approves the use of corporate or private aircraft, a Member and/or their employees who travel via corporate, business, or privately-owned aircraft in support of the conduct of official and representational duties must reimburse the entity providing the flight, for the fair market value of the flight. To determine the fair market value of such a flight, apply the following:

COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

1. When the travel is via a previously or regularly scheduled flight by the corporation, business, or individual, the entity must be reimbursed based on the cost of a commercial first class flight to the nearest location served by a commercial passenger airline. If only coach rates are provided at the nearest location, the Member must reimburse the cost of a commercial coach rate.
2. When the flight is scheduled specifically for Member use, payment will be made based on the cost of an equivalent commercial chartered flight to that location.
1. During the course of and generally along the route of a day's official itinerary.
2. Incidental to the day's official and representational business.
3. De minimis in nature, frequency, and time consumed.
4. Does not otherwise constitute a significant activity or event.
5. Not for any campaign/campaign-related political party purpose.

Short-Term

Prior to scheduling travel provided by any corporation, business, or individual, a Member or employee must verify that the person has authority under its FAA certification to accept payment for travel as set forth above.

Ordinary and necessary expenses related to short-term vehicle rentals are reimbursable. Rentals may not exceed 60 consecutive days if the rental is used by only one person.

Government Rate Eligibility

Government rates are available to Members and employees to support the conduct of official travel.

The government discount rates offered by some rental car companies include:

To be eligible for Government rates when purchasing tickets for official travel, Members and employees may present:

1. Unlimited free mileage.
2. Collision damage waiver (CDW) at no additional cost.

1. The Government Travel Card; or
2. An Official Travel Authorization (OTA) coupon available from the Office of Finance. (Some airlines only allow the government rate for tickets purchased with the government travel card.)

Cars rented at the government rate should include the CDW. Not all rental car franchises offer the government rate with CDW included. To ensure CDW coverage, offices can make their rental car reservations through the Combined Airlines Ticket Office (CATO). CATO is located at B-222 Longworth Building.

Contact the General Services Administration (GSA) to obtain a listing of schedules and fares of the federal contract air, rail, bus carriers, car rental companies, and hotels/motels. Government rates are not available for privately-sponsored officially connected travel.

If an office does not use CATO, then the Committee recommends the following:

Officially Leased Vehicles

Ordinary and necessary expenses related to the lease of a vehicle in support of the conduct of official and representational duties are reimbursable.

1. At time of the reservation, indicate that the rental is for official government use at the government rate with CDW included.
2. At the time of rental, use the Government Travel Card (or present official travel authorizations (OTA) to the rental company) and confirm that the car is being rented at a government rate with CDW included. The employee must verify that collision damage waiver is included, as simply receiving the government rate does not automatically ensure inclusion of this insurance.

Non-governmental use of such a vehicle may be made only when such use is:

MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL HANDBOOK

Offices may obtain an Official Travel Authorization coupon from the Office of Finance.

If the government rate is unavailable, the cost of CDW is reimbursable.

Personal accident insurance (PAI), personal effects coverage (PEC), and equivalent insurance policies are not reimbursable.

If an employee on official and representational business is involved in an accident with a rental car, notify the Office of General Counsel at x59700.

Long-Term

Ordinary and necessary expenses related to a long-term rental or lease of a vehicle by a Member in the Member's District are reimbursable.

1. A Member has two leasing options:
 - A. Member may lease a vehicle for a period that does not exceed the Member's congressional term.
 - B. The Member may lease a vehicle for a period that exceeds the current Congressional term, but must submit a signed letter that acknowledges personal responsibility to fulfill any outstanding obligation stemming from such a lease in the event the Member's service to the House ends prior to the lease agreement. Such letters should be attached to the negotiated lease and submitted to the CAO Office of Administrative Counsel (217 Ford Building).
2. The Committee recommends that Members submit leases to the CAO Office of Administrative Counsel for review prior to being signed by the Member and lessor, since the Member is personally liable for payments under any lease not in compliance with House Rules and Committee regulations.
3. Termination notices should be forwarded to the CAO Office of Administrative Counsel.
4. Leases may not include a purchase option.
5. Lessor-required insurance may be reimbursed. Security deposits are not reimbursable.
6. The Committee recommends that long-term vehicle leases begin on the first day of the month.

7. Monthly payments for a long-term vehicle lease may be made in advance.

The House will authorize disbursement of funds under the terms of the lease agreement only if the lease agreement complies with House Rules and Committee regulations. The House will not authorize disbursement of funds to make payments under the terms of the lease agreement until the CAO Office of Administrative Counsel has reviewed the lease and has signed the lease attachment.

In the event of an accident with an officially leased vehicle, Members or staff may contact the Office of the General Counsel (202-225-9700) for guidance related to the Federal Tort Claims Act.

Expenses

Expenses related to leased vehicles (both short-term and long-term) including but not limited to the following are reimbursable:

1. The actual monthly cost of the lease (not applicable to short-term);
2. The cost of insurance incurred pursuant to the terms of the lease (not applicable to short-term);
3. Excess mileage charges incurred pursuant to the terms of the lease;
4. Incidental operating expenses (gasoline, oil, general maintenance, etc.);
5. Wear and tear (not applicable to short-term);
6. Registration fees (not applicable to short-term); and
7. Property tax during the term of the lease (not applicable to short-term).

Security deposits, termination fees, traffic violations, parking tickets, depreciation loss based on premature return, and similar fees, penalties or charges may not be reimbursed.

Global Positioning Systems

Costs for Global Positioning Systems (GPS)/ Navigational Systems in support of official and representational duties are reimbursable.

COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

Satellite Radio Service

Costs of satellite radio service in support of official and representational are reimbursable.

Privately-Owned Vehicles

- Automobile: $0.51
- Motorcycle: $0.48
- Airplane: $1.29

For the current applicable rates, contact the Committee on House Administration at x58281. Each Member office may set lower reimbursement rates.

Only mileage for use of an aircraft that is privately owned by either a Member or the Member's employee is reimbursable. Gasoline purchased for privately owned vehicles is not reimbursable; reimbursement is provided through mileage rate reimbursement.

Travel Promotional Awards

Free travel, mileage, discounts, upgrades, coupons, etc., awarded at the sole discretion of a company as a promotional award may be used at the discretion of the Member or the Member's employee. The Committee encourages the official use of these travel promotional awards wherever practicable.

VOUCHERS AND PAYMENTS

Advance Payments

There are instances in which advance payments may be required and may be paid from the MRA. All advance payments must meet all of the following three criteria:

1. The vendor provides these billing options to other customers (documentation required).
2. The amount to be paid must be fixed at the time of purchase (e.g., variable cost contracts or services are ineligible).
3. All transactions for advance payments for the next legislative year must be submitted for payment before the beginning of that legislative year.

Unless specifically authorized by the Committee, only the following advance payments are reimbursable and only to the extent they last the current term of Congress (except where noted):

1. Public information booth rental
2. Educational expenses
3. Authorized insurance premiums
4. Subscriptions for print and electronic publications
5. Telecommunications devices or services (including Blackberry services)
6. Post-office box rentals
7. Original Equipment Manufacturers' warranties

MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL HANDBOOK

(including software license and maintenance fees)
Advance payments are not allowable for custom services to be performed such as but not limited to designing or building websites.

10. District office security services
11. Correspondence management systems (one month in advance)
12. Cable television services, including digital video recording services
13. Bottled water/coffee services
14. District office recycling and trash fees, janitorial services
15. District office rent one month in advance

Any Member who is sworn into Congress midterm is the assignee of all advance payments of his or her predecessor.

Authorized Methods of Payment

Official travel-related expenses may be paid with cash, check, personal credit card, etc., or the Government Travel Card for Members and employees and reimbursed through the Office of Finance.

Reimbursement and Direct Payment

Disbursements from the MRA are paid on a reimbursement basis or by direct payment (to vendors) and require:

1. The Member's signature, certifying that the expense was incurred in support of the Member's official and representational duties to the district from which he or she is elected.
2. Supporting documentation (receipt, lease, bill etc.).

Government Travel Card

The Government Travel Card is available for Member and employee use for official travel and travel-related expenses. Travel expenses incurred on this card are directly reimbursable to Citibank with a copy of the credit card statement, an accompanying voucher, and applicable receipts.

Members and employees are reminded that the Government Travel Card is for official travel purposes only. Use of this card for any personal or non-official purchases is prohibited. The Government Travel Card may be used by the cardholder only. The cardholder may use the card to purchase travel-related services (e.g., airline tickets, hotel expenses, etc.) for other authorized travelers.

The Office of Finance will monitor the monthly delinquency report received from the vendor and alert offices of delinquencies. The Office of Finance will not intervene with the vendor in the event of a delinquency.

Seeking Reimbursement: Vouchers

For information related to submitting vouchers for reimbursement, please refer to the Voucher Documentation Standards available on HouseNet.

Expired Appropriations

The Salaries and Expenses appropriation for the House of Representatives, which includes MRA funds, is withdrawn two years after the year for which the funds were originally appropriated. This occurs on September 30 of the year.

In the unlikely event an office requests reimbursement for an official and representational expense incurred during a year for which the appropriation has been withdrawn, the Office of Finance will determine if an amount sufficient to pay the expense would have been available if the appropriation had not been withdrawn. If no funds would have been available, then the expense is the personal liability of the Member.

If the expense would have been payable had it been timely submitted, notwithstanding the expired appropriation, then the expense may be paid from a currently available allowance, if available.

Tax Exempt Letters

To avoid paying unnecessary taxes, please contact the Office of the General Counsel at x59700 for tax exempt letters applicable to each state.

CONGRESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Congressional Member Organizations

General

Members of Congress may form a Congressional Member Organization ("CMO") in order to pursue common legislative objectives.

2. Statement of Purpose
3. Officers of the CMO
4. Employee designated to work on issues related to the CMO

To register a CMO electronically, please visit the Committee on House Administration Website

Funding and Resources

CMOs have no separate corporate or legal identity. A CMO is not an employing authority. The MRA may not directly support a CMO as an independent entity.

A CMO may not be assigned separate office space. Neither CMOs nor individual Members may accept goods, funds, or services from private organizations or individuals to support the CMO. Members may use personal funds to support the CMO.

A Member of a CMO, in support of the objectives of that CMO, may utilize employees (including shared employees) and official resources under the control of the Member to assist the CMO in carrying out its legislative objectives, but no employees may be appointed in the name of a CMO. Business cards for individuals who work on CMO issues must list the employing authority before the name of the CMO.

CMOs may have independent web pages when no official resources are used, outside of staff time, to create and support the site.

Members may request a URL for a CMO, provided that the request complies with the CMO domain name regulations issued by the Committee on House Administration. Web pages using such a URL need not have the same design or layout as the Web site of the sponsoring Member.

Communications

CMOs may not use the Frank, nor may a Member lend his or her Frank to a CMO.

A Member may use official resources for communications related to the purpose of a CMO. Any such communications must comply with the Franking Regulations.

Members may devote a section of their official website

MEMBERS' CONGRESSIONAL HANDBOOK

to CMO issues.

A Member may use inside mail to communicate information related to a CMO.

Members may prepare material related to CMO issues for dissemination.

Official funds may not be used to print or pay for stationery for the CMO.

Members may refer to their membership in a CMO on their official stationery.

5. Individuals designated to maintain web and mail services on behalf of the CSO (if applicable)

Congressional Staff Organizations

General

A Congressional Staff Organization ("CSO") is an organization, a majority of whose members are House employees, that exists for the purpose of facilitating interaction among congressional staff.

Each Congress, CSOs must register with the Committee on House Administration.

At least one officer of a CSO must be an employee of the House, and all officers must be employees of the House or Senate.

A CSO should contact the Committee on Ethics at x57103 before accepting anything of monetary value from a private source.

Official Resources

Other than as specified in this section, House staff that participates in a CSO may make only incidental use of official resources for activities related to a CSO. A CSO is not an employing authority of the House and may not be assigned separate office space.

Each Congress, in order to use official resources of the House (e.g., inside mail, House Intranet, etc.), a CSO must register with the Committee on House Administration. A sponsoring Member must submit a letter, on official letterhead, to the Committee with the following information:

After the CSO is registered, the sponsoring Member may submit, at any time, a letter requesting access to Inside Mail, a House postbox, or a presence on the House Intranet for CSO related activities.

MODIFICATIONS

Additional Changes

The Chairman of the Committee is authorized to make technical and conforming modifications to the Members Handbook, and to make other modifications with the concurrence of the Ranking Minority Member of the Committee and notification to all members of the Committee. In the event changes are made pursuant to this clause, the Chairman shall notify all congressional offices by suitable means.

COMMITTEE ON HOUSE
ADMINISTRATION
1309 LONGWORTH HOB
X58281
CHA.HOUSE.GOV

The CHAIRMAN. The last time the committee overhauled this document was over a decade ago. Our offices have worked extensively on a bipartisan basis this year, reaching out to Members and staff, to determine the best changes and necessary updates. I am pleased to say that we now have a finished product that provides greater clarity and reflects technical advances, such as Members' ever-increasing Web presence, encompassing everything from official Web sites to tele-town halls.

I appreciate the ranking member's support in pursuing this bipartisan effort to provide clear, up-to-date regulations for the use of our Members through their Members' representational allowances.

And I would ask unanimous consent that the consideration of the committee resolution to adopt the Members' Congressional Handbook be added to the agenda for today's markup.

And, without objection, it is so ordered.

So I would call up and lay before the committee the Committee Resolution 112-10 to adopt the Members' Congressional Handbook.

Without objection, the resolution will be considered as read and open for amendment at any point.

[The resolution follows:]

COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

COMMITTEE RESOLUTION 112-10

Adopted on December 16, 2011

Members' Congressional Handbook

Resolved, that the regulations, which are attached to this resolution and collectively referred to as the "Members' Congressional Handbook", are hereby adopted.

Resolved further, that the Chairman of the Committee on House Administration is authorized to make technical and conforming modifications to the Members' Congressional Handbook, and to make other modifications with the concurrence of the Ranking Minority Member and notification to all members of the Committee. In the event changes are made pursuant to this clause, the Chairman shall notify all congressional offices by suitable means.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, before I do that, I just might ask if the ranking member has any comments on this.

Mr. BRADY. Just, Mr. Chairman, I am very appreciative of the majority's consideration of the minority's suggestions and the effort to include my staff throughout this process. And I thank you and thank your staff.

The CHAIRMAN. I thank the gentleman for his comments.

Are there any amendments to the resolution?

If not, I move the committee adopt the resolution.

The question is on the motion.

All those in favor of the motion, signify by saying, "aye."

All opposed, "nay."

In the opinion of the chair, the ayes have it, and the motion is agreed to.

Without objection, the motion to reconsider is laid upon the table.

I want to thank all the Members for their attendance, for their cooperation, and for their work on this. Also, your staffs have been very, very helpful. They have been directly involved in this, and without their help we couldn't have gotten it done. We are getting it done under the wire.

I think my hope is that I might be able to bring it to the floor later, if we worked it out for a UC on the Members' Handbook. We would not be able to do that if we hadn't been able to get this done at this moment.

So I thank everybody here, and Merry Christmas.

[Whereupon, at 11:05 a.m., the committee was adjourned.]
